ORDER:

In their and No. 35 P.H. dated the 5th January 1944, the Government asked Presidents of District Boards to make increased provision for the supply of medicines at the rate of Rs. 720 per annum for each rural dispensary of modern medicine and at Rs. 600 per annum for each rural dispensary of Indian medicine, beginning from 1944-45 till the cessation of hostilities. The Surgeon-General and the Special Officer for Reorganisation of the Department of Indian Medicine now recommend that in view of the prevailing high cost of medicines and other articles even after the close of the war, the enhanced porivison mentioned above may be continued till the return of normal times. The Government accept their recommendations.

2. The Special Officers of District Boards are informed that they may continue to make increased provision on their budgets for the supply of the medicines to their rural dispensaries at the enhanced rates specified in paragraph 1 above till further orders.
